

BRAND & LOGO

Developing a logo and corporate identity is one of the most important decisions a company can make. Omega5 offers several different design options to suit the size and scope of your budget. Whether corporate, product, or sub-branded identities, Omega5 takes care of all your logo requirements.

WE will help you...

> Create a strong message through design

Our detailed questionnaire creates a jumping off point for designing a logo that works for the future. We take the time to go through a detailed understanding of your needs and then create a look that is right.

> Develop a Strong Branding Guideline

In today's business environment, it's increasingly difficult for an organization to be noticed. Visual overkill of competing messages are overwhelming, therefore developing a uniform, easily recognized identity to communicate is essential in providing long-term integrity to your logo.

